Choir Director's Report

- Choir went to festival/clinic at Ohlone College. DHS was one of the top choirs. Loved their red dresses.
- Next Tuesday spring Concert- Puttin' on the Ritz, Jazz
- Musical coming up: "In the Heights" Mr. Everts will be playing drums

Band Director's Report

- District Concert went REALLY well. Tough to fit all bands in sports complex
- Fallon now has a string teacher
- NCPA went really well, made ~$5k.
- Ireland: Mrs. Everts and Darby did a beautiful job. Loretto all girls school, stars for a day, Parade had silly string and narrow streets. We are well blessed with our facilities and support. Students were well behaved. Great chaperones and other parents who helped out.

Treasurer's Report

- P&L provided
- More student pledges are coming in
- Winter Percussion NCPA made approximately $5k.
- Hoedown- ticket sales are at $450 so far
- New expenses: color guard marching uniforms (not an Ireland expense)
- Need a new generator. Requested Chris Sharton to identify on. Perhaps used.

Publicity Report

- Reports from Ireland sent to DHS. First place finish in Brey Parade

Fundraising Report

- Meat Sale scheduled April 30th/May 1st
- St Patrick's Day Festival: Rained- all below average and dismal Sunday. Rotary did a great job organizing.
- Candle Sale will begin after spring break, orders due April 25th. We receive 50% or more. Goes to the general fund.

President's Report

- Hoedown is coming up quickly. Cindy Rosefield will be playing Bluegrass with her group. Raffle, dessert auction, DJ, dancing. Featuring Darby as the mixologist! Purchase those tickets!
